Come join us as author Yvonne Wong shares her experience in writing her book, and enjoy mingling with like-minded professionals over lunch!

This book provides the most up-to-date coverage of the new banking and finance framework in Myanmar. It explains the institutions, regulators and reforms in light of Myanmar's turbulent and fascinating history and provides in-depth information about key changes in the last few years. It is easy to read, well researched and written with the benefit of local and international knowledge. It is an indispensable book for scholars, practitioners, investors, and anyone who wants a better understanding of how money moves in and out, and around Myanmar.

Enjoy 10% discount when you purchase "Money Matters in Myanmar" on-site.

Book Launch: Money Matters in Myanmar

Money Matters in Myanmar by Dr Yvonne Wong, Senior Research Fellow at the Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL) and the Centre for Asian Legal Studies (CALs), was launched on 24 March 2016. The monograph was financially supported by both centres.

The launch, jointly organised by CBFL, CALs and publisher LexisNexis, was held at the Blue Bali restaurant located on the NUS Bukit Timah Campus.

Yvonne shared her experience living in Myanmar as it was undergoing a political and economic transition, and also her research on the transforming banking and finance landscape. Professor Andrew Harding from CALs, Associate Professors Dora Neo and Sandra Booyesen from CBFL, as well as Ms Angie Ong from LexisNexis, also spoke at the event.
