The Legal Challenges of Starting-Up a New Multilateral Development Bank: The Example of the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank

By Peter Quayle
Chief Counsel
Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank

29 March 2019 (Friday)

10.00am to 11.30am (Registration starts at 9.30am)

NUS Law (Bukit Timah Campus)

Eu Tong Sen Building, Level 1, Lee Sheridan Conference Room

ABOUT THE EVENT

The legal challenges of starting-up a new multilateral development bank are considerable. This guest lecture will explore the innovations afforded by the Articles of Agreement of the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB), consider what is needed from institutional lawyers to build an effective international organization, and draw conclusions about the AIIB's potential to boost Asia's connectivity and economic development.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Peter Quayle is Chief Counsel, Corporate at the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank, and member of the management team of the Office of the General Counsel. He is formerly Associate Director, Senior Counsel of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and Legal Advisor of the Office of Foreign Litigation, Civil Division European Office, of the US Department of Justice. He was educated at the Universities of Oxford and London and is a solicitor of England and Wales. He is Visiting Professor of International Organizations Law at Peking University Law School and Editor of the AIIB Yearbook of International Law.

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR BANKING & FINANCE LAW

The Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL) at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore, seeks to generate scholarship and promote thinking about the vibrancy, robustness and soundness of the banking sector, capital markets and other financial services. Through the research our scholars undertake and the events we organise, we seek to create and share knowledge, to engage stakeholders in an exchange of ideas, and to enhance the appreciation of legal and regulatory issues. We aim to bring greater theoretical and analytical clarity to these issues, to examine their policy impact, and to be a catalyst for ideas on how to improve banking and financial systems at the national, regional and global levels.
